

Explore NYC's Natural Side: Pelham Bay Park's Rocky Coast and Salt Marshes

A "Science of the Living City" Seminar

Join the Natural Areas Conservancy for a guided walk through Pelham Bay's scenic salt marsh and NYC's only rocky-coast shoreline. Often overlooked, salt marshes are critical to ensure the health of our city's wildlife and human well-being.

Come learn why!

Saturday, October 4th from 2:00pm-4:00pm

Pelham Bay Park, Bronx, New York
Meet at Pelham-Split Rock Golf Course Parking Lot,
870 Shore Rd, Bronx, NY 10464

(Free public parking is provided in the back of the parking lot)

The event is open to public.

To register for this event, please visit the Natural Areas Conservancy website www.naturalareasnyc.org/learn/

 naturalareasnyc |  @naturalareasnyc |  naturalareasnyc

